(a) Performance of Assumed Contracts. Buyer shall fully and faithfully perform all of the duties required of Seller under any of the contracts and leases of the Business which have been disclosed to Buyer as of the date hereof. Upon the expiration of such sublease and such principal lease, Buyer shall make its own rental arrangements with the primary landlord of the Facility if it desires to remain in the Premises. In any event, Seller shall have no further liability under the primary lease of the Facility after it expires on August 18, 2013. It shall be the obligation of the indemnified party to give prompt notice to the indemnifying party of such claim. The indemnified party shall be entitled to indemnification only after the indemnifying party has failed to notify the indemnified party of its intent to defend the claim or such claim has been settled or gone to a final, non-appealable judgment.
